The Wolf Haldenstein Antitrust Practice Group

The firm's Antitrust Practice Group is managed and directed by Mary Jane Fait, the managing partner of the Chicago office. Wolf Haldenstein's Antitrust Practice Group actively seeks to enhance antitrust law in ways that will strengthen the rights and claims of small businesses and consumers. To that end it commences large, often complex antitrust and trade regulation class actions and other cases that target some of the most powerful and well-funded corporate interests in the world. Many of these interests have strong influence over enforcement policy that is in the hands of elected officials, so that private enforcement provides the only true assurance that their conduct will be duly scrutinized for compliance with the law. These cases frequently bring to light concealed unlawful conduct such as price-fixing, monopolization, monopoly leveraging, essential facilities, tying arrangements, vertical restraints, exclusive dealing, and refusals to deal. Wolf Haldenstein's Antitrust Practice Group has successfully prosecuted numerous antitrust cases and advocates remedies and restitution for businesses and investors wronged by violations of the antitrust laws.

The Wolf Haldenstein Class Action Litigation Group

Wolf Haldenstein's Class Action Litigation Group has been recognized by courts throughout the country as being highly experienced in complex class action litigation.

Wolf Haldenstein's performance in representative litigation has repeatedly received favorable judicial recognition. The following representative judicial comments over three decades indicate the high regard in which the Firm is held:

In re Vytorin/Zetia Marketing, Sales Practices and Products Liability Litigation, 08-cv-285-DMC (D.N.J. Feb. 10, 2009), where our Firm served as Counsel for the Consumer Subclass, Chair of the Consumer Subclass Committee and the Consumer Subclass Liaison to the Executive Committee, Judge Cavanaugh wrote: "The firms representing Plaintiffs are known nationally and well reputed with a focus in class action and multi-district litigation." Judge Cavanaugh further noted that "[T]he skill and efficiency of the attorneys involved is high. Class Counsel are highly skilled attorneys with substantial experience in class action litigation, particularly mass tort and multidistrict litigation, as illustrated by firm biographies and the Declarations of Counsel accompanying their fee application."

In In re Dynamic Random Access Memory (DRAM) Litigation, No. 02-1486-PJH (N.D. Cal. Aug. 15, 2007), the Firm was co-lead counsel. The Court approved $320 million in settlements and the class members received a record 85% of their single damages. In approving the award of attorneys' fees, Judge Hamilton noted that the lead attorneys did "an exceptional job" of coordinating and litigating the case, commenting "I have cases a fraction the size of this one that take up more of my, time just because counsel are not acting as cooperatively and professionally as you are." Judge Hamilton also commented on lead counsel's motion for reimbursement of attorneys' fees and expenses stating: "The language in your motion is deserved. It is not mere puffery."

In In re MicroStrategy Securities Litigation, 150 F. Supp. 2d 896, 903 (E.D. Va. 2001), where the Firm was a co-lead counsel, Judge Ellis commented: "Clearly, the conduct of all counsel in this case and the result they have achieved for all of the parties confirms that they deserve the national recognition they enjoy."

In In Re Toys R Us Antitrust Litigation, 98 MDL 1211 (NG) 191 F.R.D. 347, 351, 356 (E.D.N.Y. 2000), where the Firm served as co-lead counsel and liaison counsel, Judge Gershon wrote: "Class counsel are highly skilled and experienced and can fairly and adequately represent the interests of the class . . . Counsel for both the class plaintiffs and the States have well-earned the compensation that they request.”

In Yud v. Saf T Lok, No. 98-8507-Civ-Hurley (S.D. Fla. Dec. 15, 1999), where the firm was sole lead counsel, the court stated: “The attorneys have done an outstanding amount of work and fine legal work in a short period of time to bring this class action to resolution in a successful fashion.”

In Kurzweil v. Philip Morris Companies, 94 Civ. 2373, 94 Civ. 2546 (MBM) (S.D.N.Y. Nov. 13, 1998), where the Firm was sole lead counsel, now Chief Judge Mukasey, in approving a $116.5 million settlement stated: “In this case, this represents a lot of good, hard, serious work by a lot of talented lawyers and I appreciate it on both sides.”

In Paramount Communications v. QVC Network Inc.; In re Paramount Communications Inc. Shareholders’ Litigation, 637 A.2d 34, 37 n.2 (Sup. Ct. Del. 1994), where the Firm was co-lead counsel for the Paramount shareholders, the Supreme Court of Delaware “commended the parties for their professionalism in conducting expedited discovery, assembling and organizing the record, and preparing and presenting very helpful briefs, a joint appendix, and oral argument.”

In In re Warner Communications Securities Litigation, 618 F. Supp. 735, 749 (S.D.N.Y. 1985), where the Firm served as co-lead counsel, the court said: “‘plaintiffs’ counsel constitute the cream of the plaintiffs’ bar.’ The Court cannot find fault with that characterization.”

In Steiner v. Equimark Corp., No. 81-1988 (W.D. Pa. 1983), a case involving complex issues concerning banking practices in which the Firm was lead counsel, then District Judge Mannsman described, in part, the work the Firm performed:

We look at the complexity of the issue, the novelty of it, the quality of work that, as the trial judge, I am able to perceive, and then, finally, the amount of recovery obtained: I think I have certainly said a lot in that regard. I think it’s been an extraordinary case. I think it’s an extraordinary settlement. Certainly defense counsel and plaintiffs’ counsel as well are all experienced counsel with a tremendous amount of experience in these particular kinds of cases. And under those circumstances . . . I think it was, really, the strategy and ingenuity of counsel in dividing up the workload and strategizing the cases as to who was to do what and what ultimately should be done to bring about the settlement that was achieved.
