Activists Block Repair of Sabotaged Lines In Crimea, Leaving Region in Darkness

By IVAN NECHEPURENKO and NEIL MacFARQUHAR

MOSCOW — Crimean Tatar activists and Ukrainian nationalists on Monday prevented repair crews from restoring the main power lines in southern Ukraine that supply Crimea, leaving the disputed peninsula in the dark and Ukraine and Russia headed toward a standoff over the issue.

The power lines were knocked down by saboteurs on Sunday, forcing millions of residents to live without electricity.

The Tatar activists who blockaded the damaged site said they would thwart repairs until Russia released political prisoners and allowed international organizations to monitor human rights in Crimea. The activists say that the 300,000-member Tatar minority has faced systematic repression since Russia annexed the peninsula in March 2014.

President Petro O. Poroshenko of Ukraine, without mentioning the electricity cutoff directly, appeared to endorse the confrontation.

After a meeting with the foreign ministers of Belgium, Luxembourg and the Netherlands, Mr. Poroshenko echoed the demands of the Tatar protesters, saying that the international community should work to release arrested activists, restore Crimean Tatar broadcasts and reverse the exile of Tatar leaders.

“We are not satisfied with today’s status quo when the occupational authorities neglect basic rights of Crimea Tatars,” Mr. Poroshenko said, before making an indirect reference to the destruction of the electricity lines. “These irresponsible actions caused significant escalation between the activists and occupational authorities.”

Tatars organize a blockade and seem to get support from the Ukrainian president.

Mr. Poroshenko also released a letter on Monday that he had first sent to the Ukrainian cabinet on Nov. 4, calling on the prime minister to study the question of halting all freight transport to and from Crimea.

The sudden release of the letter almost 20 days after he sent it also seemed to offer a subtle endorsement of the electricity protest.

In Moscow, Dmitri S. Peskov, the Kremlin spokesman, reacted calmly, saying that he was unaware of any timetable to repair the lines but that he hoped that Alisa Sopova contributed reporting from Donetsk, Ukraine.

Ukraine would take “rapid measures” to do the work.

President Vladimir V. Putin, who was traveling to a meeting of gas exporters in Iran, did not immediately comment. He was unlikely to take kindly to Ukraine disrupting life for all of Crimea, however, given that he has made its absorption into Russia something of a personal project.

Sergei V. Aksyonov, the Kremlin-appointed prime minister of the Crimean Republic, was more exercised, calling the power cutoff “a terrorist act” in a statement on Monday.

“I would urge Crimeans to be patient and to see what our situation is,” Mr. Aksyonov said. “Nobody will be allowed to blackmail us in order to solve any issues.”

Ukraine still claims the peninsula, and its senior officials have been perturbed that its seizure by Russia has seemingly dropped off the international agenda, rating a fleeting mention at best whenever the crisis over fighting in southeastern Ukraine is discussed.

The issue of supplies coming from Ukraine has been a repeated source of tension, as food, water and electricity still flow from the mainland to the peninsula. A major irrigation canal was shut down in 2014, but significant rainfall and other local sources prevented serious damage to crops this year. In September, Tatar

A damaged electric pylon near the village of Chonhar in the Kherson region on Monday. The main power lines in southern Ukraine that supply Crimea were knocked down by saboteurs.

An activist, center, tried over the weekend to hinder Ukrainian forces deployed to the site where electric pylons were damaged.

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE, CHANCERY DIVISION, COMPANIES COURT
Action No: CR-2015-008882

IN THE MATTER OF A JOINT APPLICATION
BY DOWA INSURANCE COMPANY (EUROPE) LIMITED (Company No 01235550)
AND AIOI NISSAY DOWA INSURANCE COMPANY OF EUROPE LIMITED
(Company No 05046406)

AND IN THE MATTER OF: THE FINANCIAL SERVICES AND MARKETS ACT 2000

NOTICE of joint application pursuant to section 107 (1) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000

Transfer of Insurance Business

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Aioi Nissay Dowa Insurance Company of Europe Limited (“ANDIE”) and Dowa Insurance Company (Europe) Limited (“DICE”) jointly applied to the High Court of England and Wales on 17 November 2015, pursuant to section 107 (1) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (“FSMA”), for an Order sanctioning the transfer to ANDIE of the entirety of the insurance and reinsurance business written, assumed or acquired by DICE and for the subsequent dissolution without winding up of DICE. It is also intended that any reinsurance protections and guarantees attached to the business will also be transferred, pursuant to section 112 of FSMA.

The business to be transferred represents all of DICE’s insurance and reinsurance business (all categories) including all the contracts of insurance and reinsurance policies underwritten, assumed or otherwise acquired by DICE. DICE was incorporated on 28 November 1975 under the name of Dowa Insurance Company (U.K.) Limited and is registered with company number 1235550 and FCA registration number 202115. DICE changed its name once with effect from 7 July 1992. For many years DICE operated from a registered office at 9-13 Fenchurch Buildings, London EC3M 5HR. The registered office was changed to its current address at 5th Floor, 11 Old Jewry, London EC2R 8DU with effect from 27 August 2010.

The business to be transferred will include DICE’s London Market Reinsurance Business which is the subject of a proposed Scheme of Arrangement under Part 26 Companies Act 2006 in respect of which notice is being given this day that the High Court of Justice of England and Wales has directed that a Scheme Creditors Meeting of DICE be held on 28th day January 2016 at the offices of FTI Consulting LLP, 200 Aldersgate, Aldersgate Street London EC1A 4HD commencing at 11 am (London time) to consider and, if thought fit, to approve (with or without modification) the proposed Scheme of Arrangement with its Scheme Creditors. Whilst the Scheme of Arrangement will be promoted in parallel to the insurance business transfer and it is intended that they will be heard together by the Court, they are not interdependent. DICE’s London Market Reinsurance Business will be transferred to ANDIE (assuming the transfer scheme to be sanctioned) whether or not the Scheme of Arrangement is sanctioned.

A Scheme Report on the proposed transfer scheme has been prepared by Mr Derek Newton, a Fellow of the Institute of Actuaries with over 26 years’ experience and currently with the firm of actuaries Milliman. The report concludes that no policyholder will be materially adversely affected by the transfer. A copy of the full Scheme Report and a statement setting out the terms of the Transfer Scheme and containing a summary of the Scheme Report can be obtained free of charge from the Aioi web site linked from: www.aioinissaydowa.eu/en/home or, alternatively, from Toby Woodridge at PRO Global Insurance Solutions plc, Southgate House, Southgate Street, Gloucester GL1 1UB, United Kingdom, toby.woodridge@pro-global.com

The proposed transfer will secure the continuation by or against ANDIE of any legal proceedings (pending or threatened now or in the future) by or against DICE that relate to the transferred business. All claims currently being dealt with by or on behalf of DICE would, after the proposed transfer, be handled by or on behalf of ANDIE including the administration of the Scheme Claims which are the subject of the proposed Scheme of Arrangement. Future claims arising under the transferred policies would be similarly dealt with by or on behalf of ANDIE.

After the proposed transfer, it is proposed that DICE will be dissolved by and subject to Order of the Court.

A helpline procedure has been established for any questions in connection with the proposals, please contact Celia Stuart, Head of Compliance, T: + 44 (0) 20 7367 1016. E: celia.stuart@ainoissaydowa.eu

Any person who considers that he would be adversely affected by the carrying out of the scheme is entitled to make representations and also to be heard by the Court pursuant to section 110 (b) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000.

Written representations to the Company should be made either directly to DICE or ANDIE at their registered office 5th Floor, 11 Old Jewry, London EC2R 8DU (FAO: Managing Director) or to DICE’s solicitors named below. Oral representations may be made to the Company via the helpline number given above and will be logged.

Representations to the Court may be made in writing, by a legal representative with standing to be heard by the Court or by attending in person. Representations sent to DICE or ANDIE or the Solicitors will be communicated to the Court.

The application will be heard at 10.30 am on 16 March 2016 in the Companies Court, Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London WC2A 2LL.
